THE LAST SACRIFICE SALE OF THE SEASON.

We have made a sensation this season, such as has never been seen in the Clothing Trade of Helena. Our aim is to make a reputation lasting and strong as Gibraltar's Rock—a reputation for selling goods, a reputation for selling goods at small profits. At this particular time our aim is to sell as much as we can and to lose as little as possible, for on whatever we sell we make a losing. We hold the first loss is the best loss, and when we have a stock of goods and wish to dispose of them, we cut them down to a point where values are slaughtered and profits unknown.

WE OFFER THIS WEEK:

50 Suits, Worth $10.00,	-	-	Now $5.00.
100 " " 15.00,	-	-	" 7.50.
200 " " 20.00,	-	-	" 10.00.

Remember this is positively the last chance this year to buy a line of nice, desirable patterns at about half their value. What are not sold this week will be taken from our counters and stored away. We prefer to turn them into money, even at a loss, rather than carry them over.

SLAUGHTERING PRICES IN SHIRTS & UNDERWEAR.

20 dozen Shirts, Prints, Worth 75c. at 25c. Each.
50 " " Percales Worth $1.50 at 75c. Each.
20 " Stripe Underwear, Worth $1.50 at 75c. Each.
100 " Plain " " 250 at $1.50 Each.

They'll all go this week. They are just half the value, and an appreciative public will be sure to gobble them in. We therefore suggest, as the lines are small and demand is great, call early.

HATZFELT'S CATCH

An Impeccable German Prince to Marry a Daughter of Millionaire Huntington.

He Met Her in Spain, Professed to be Smitten, Proposed and Was Accepted.

The Prince Already Has Some Reputation, Gained by Unsavory Gambling Adventures—A Black Sheep.

Another impeccable foreigner has capture an American heiress. Miss Huntington, the daughter of Mr. Collis P. Huntington, of Union Pacific fame, is engaged to be married to Prince Hatzfeldt. Miss Huntington has been traveling in Spain with Mrs. John Sherwood and met the prince, who professed to be captivated and followed her about, proposed marriage and was accepted.

Prince Hatzfeldt is a cousin of Count Hatzfeldt, the German Ambassador in London, who is likewise married to an American girl, Miss Moulton. The countess is, however, now separated from her husband and resides in Paris.

Prince Hatzfeldt, who is engaged to marry Miss Huntington, used to be one of the secretaries of legation at London. He is tall and fair with a pale face and slight stoop.
He is well known in the clubs here, where sporting men most frequent, and is considered a capital fellow among his set. There is nothing against him but chronic impeccuniousity and a tendency to contract debts which there is no immediate prospect of paying. For a while he affected the turf, but had not money enough to cut much of a figure. He has been a well known figure at most of the fashionable watering places on the continent, and has cultivated the acquaintance of numerous rich American girls at Monte Carlo, Baden, Hamburg and other foreign resorts. He has been assisting in his attentions to Miss Huntington.
Some of the prince's friends estimate his debts to amount to 1,000,000 francs, which he, of course, expects to have paid off when he is married.

Prince Francis of Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg, was born on June 12, 1853, and has figured somewhat prominently in several gambling episodes of the most unsavory nature. One of these, which occurred a couple of years ago, attracted much attention at the time, and led to the Prince's temporary eclipse. Although his faith-and mother are extremely popular, both at Berlin and at Vienna, he himself is regarded somewhat as a disgrace, and as the black sheep of his family he is no longer in the diplomatic service or in the army.

The Hatzfeldt family is famous on the continent for the number of its appeals to the divorce court, no less than six divorces having taken place during the present generation. The most notable of these was that of the lovely and blonde Princess Elizabeth Hatzfeldt, who married Prince Carlo-Bathen, descended her husband and her children to the Duke of Saxe-Bismarck in 1880. The couple fled to Venice, where the unfortunate princess was abandoned by her lover, who returned to Berlin in consequence of a pressing summons from his father, the chancellor. The princess, left without means of subsistence, found her way to Gans, where, after being subjected to the most intolerable privations and indignities, she was finally rescued from absolute want by some charitable relatives.

A Woman's Discovery.
Another wonderful discovery has been made in these closing years of the nineteenth century, by one of the best known ladies of Minneapolis. She has discovered a railroad that is perfection. But let her tell it in her own words: "I cannot close this rambling letter without alluding to the charming ride we had on the Burlington road from Minneapolis to Chicago. If there is any road in the United States or elsewhere which has more luxurious or more perfectly comfortable sleepers, more beautiful, well-appointed dining cars, more appetizing, satisfying meals, or better attention in all its departments than this road, I have never seen it, and I do not believe it exists. The arrangements of the cars were all so perfect, and everything was so quiet, that I, for one, was sorry to leave them, and determined then and there to recommend the Burlington to any friends who in their journeyings might call themselves of this route." For tickets, rates, and any information, apply to your local agent, or write to W. J. C. Kenyon, general passenger agent C. & N. R. R. St. Paul, Minn.

Woman's most faithful friend is Oregon Kidney Tea. It is specially adapted to complaints peculiar to delicate systems, and works like magic without leaving any unpleasant after effects. Oregon Kidney Tea is a purely vegetable preparation and is unequalled in kidney and urinary complaints. Sold by R. S. Hale & Co., wholesale and retail agents, Helena.
